

I would like to see the Wisconsin "Do Not Call" list left as is. I enjoy going home each day after work and not having to hear the telephone ring every 15 minutes, just to answer it and either hear nothing at the other end or some telemarketer mispronouncing my name trying to sell me something that I don't need. I also don't have to worry about my children answering the phone and being solicited by these people.